BARGAINING UPDATE

TO: All PSAC/UNW Members at the NWT Power Corporation

Dear UNW Members:

This round of bargaining has not been an easy one; and our negotiations are not over because others have settled.

We appreciate the unwavering solidarity shown time and again by NTPC members over the past few years.

We again ask members to support the bargaining team and join us in on our call to strike action if necessary if we are unable to reach a fair settlement this coming weekend.

Strike notice has been served and will be effective 12:01 am on Monday in the event we do not reach a reasonable tentative agreement during mediation.

The team will be counting on your visible support as we once again approach mediation with the intention of achieving a fair settlement for members.

A fair deal for all NTPC members is worth fighting for.

We will be in touch as bargaining progresses, and once we are in a position to report on the outcome of mediation this weekend we will do so.

Please keep in touch with your Local Presidents and watch the UNW website. If you have not done so already, please send your personal email address to UNW HQ to receive messages and updates directly. (mem@unw.ca)

In Solidarity,
YOUR BARGAINING TEAM
