

Concerned about Your Public Postal Service!

Here's a Chance to Tell Canada Post to Deliver More to the North!

Postal workers along with other local organizations are concerned about the future of our Public Postal Service. We are holding a rally to bring awareness about ways we can expand services in the North.

Canada Post Annual General Meeting

The following day Canada Post is holding its Annual Public Meeting here in Yellowknife to hear your concerns about postal service. This is your chance to tell senior management from Ottawa what improvements you want for your family, your community and the North. Bring your concerns, your comments and suggestions to this meeting.
