Notes: GNWT employees who are signed members are eligible to vote. Those who have yet to complete a Membership application must do so prior to the meeting. If you are unable to fill it out on line membership applications will also be available at the door.

Members travelling during strike votes, or living in a community where no meeting is scheduled will be given an alternate way to vote. More information will be provided via our website.

GNWT Employees Major Outstanding Issues and Proposals

If you are unsure of what the major outstanding issues and proposals are with regards to collective bargaining with the GNWT check out our Fact Sheet for more information.

Have questions about the strike vote meeting process. Check out our Q & A page here.

GNWT Employees - Support your Bargaining Team

It's time to show your support for your bargaining team. You can pick up a button today at either the UNW HQ or from your RVP.

Do you listen to the radio?

Listen for our bargaining messages!

We have started playing UNW advertisements related to bargaining with the GNWT.

Each day a new message directed at the employer will be played throughout the day.

So turn on your radios and listen for our daily message.
